

Target : Agra Corporation

Outline : Development and sales of Agra, a management intelligence infrastructure tool

Authorized investment : ¥600 million (maximum)

- Facilitates use of management information resources unrestricted by existing corporate systems
- Helps corporate reform, such as restructuring and M&As, through rapid data integration among Companies and, therefore, promotes innovative changes in industry structures

*Ontology is a data format that can be communicated intelligibly between humans and between humans and computers