

Ambry Genetics Corporation

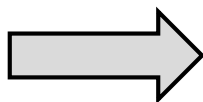

Target : Ambry Genetics Corporation

Outline : Genetic testing services for breast cancer, colon cancer, and other diseases

Authorized investment : USD 400M (maximum)

- Investment
- Management support
- Support to establish Japanese market

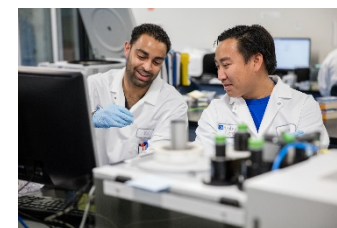

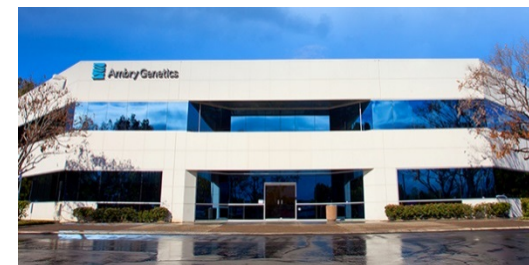

- Investment
- Management support
- Transfer of technology and sales support
- Development of Japanese market through cooperation with other players

Ambry Genetics®

- Provides genetic testing services in oncology and other diseases, including heart and neurological disease and respiratory diseases, such as cystic fibrosis
- Conducted more than one million genetic tests to date and has identified over 45,000 mutations in 500 types of genes

- Promote commercialization of unique technology from Japan and expansion of overseas business by combining Konica Minolta's protein-sensitive quantitative detection technology with Ambry's genetic diagnostic technology
- Establish genetic testing business to contribute to the promotion of precision medicine in Japan