

Target : Life-Science Intellectual property Platform Fund (LSIP)

Outline : IP fund that will cross organizational boundaries to collect intellectual property from universities, research institutes, etc. in four key fields of key life science and increase its value before licensing it to pharmaceutical companies, etc.

Authorized investment : ¥1 billion (maximum)

- Crosses organizational boundaries to collect IP from universities, public research institutes, etc.
- Forms and licenses attractive IP clusters, and facilitates their use in innovative technology or creation of venture companies