Material Concept

Target: Material Concept Co., Ltd.

Overview: Develops and manufactures copper paste for use in electronics and solar batteries

Authorized investment: ¥600 million (maximum)

Investment Management support

Joint research IP transfer

Companies in the industry

Joint development

Investment
Management support

Material Concept Co., Ltd.

- Develops and manufactures copper paste for use in electronics and solar batteries
- A university startup aiming to commercialize the copper-paste technology developed by Professor Koike at Tohoku University.

Through this investment, INCJ aims to:

- Support the commercialization of revolutionary new technology in the materials field
- Create a successful model of a startup from academia
- Strengthen collaboration among industry, academia, and government