

Target: Nileworks Inc.

Business Outline: Development of agricultural use drones and cloud services for growth diagnosis and cultivation management

Authorized Investment: 300 million yen (maximum)

Date of Announcement: October 10, 2017

- Supporting the realization of “Precision Agriculture from the Air”
- Supporting the spread of innovative ICT-driven precision agriculture and thus improve the productivity and boost the international competitiveness of Japanese agriculture
- Contributing to the creation of a new industry by merging ICT and agriculture to pursue collaboration and open innovation, transcending the boundaries between industries